HISTORIC HILLSDALE

THE CITY OF HILLSDALE

Welcome to the City of Hillsdale! Located amongst the lush, rolling hills of South Central Michigan, Hillsdale boasts a picturesque downtown that matches the beauty of its surrounding landscape. Whether you are here to visit Hillsdale College, relax at the lake, or tour our National Register Historic downtown, we hope you enjoy your stay!

HISTORIC DOWNTOWN

Established in 1835 and chartered in 1869, the City of Hillsdale remains a hub of business and community. On the National Register of Historic Places, the city is home to the Mitchell Research Center and the Will Carleton Poor House.

RESTAURANTS

From burgers to Thai, Italian to home style, Hillsdale has the cuisine to satisfy your cravings. Whether you are looking for a complete meal, a snack, some drinks or dessert, our local restaurants serve it all. Want more? Our pubs and taverns carry some of the best craft beers and wines brewed in Michigan.

SHOPPING

Enjoy unique, locally owned antique stores, clothing boutiques, and gift shops that help create our quaint, small town atmosphere.

HILLSDALE COMMUNITY LIBRARY

Hillsdale Community Library is dedicated to serving the residents of Hillsdale. The library provides a welcoming environment to all, with access to technology, lifelong learning, and informational needs of the community.

AIRPORT

The Hillsdale Municipal Airport, with its 5,000 foot runway, hosts commercial air traffic, the annual Fly-In and Exchange Club Breakfast.

RECREATION

Hillsdale is an outdoor lover's paradise. Baw Beese Lake and the Baw Beese Trail, a paved 8 mile portion of the North Country Trail, provide walking, biking, boating, fishing and outdoor recreational activities throughout the year for residents and visitors alike. Picnic, play beach volleyball or basketball, or just soak up the sun at Sandy Beach. Whatever you do, make sure to enjoy the beauty of Hillsdale's natural surroundings.
